

Chicago Alliance of Visual Artists

CAVA is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization dedicated to helping visual artists aged 50 and over expand their horizons, promote their art, and grow, with over 150 artists throughout the greater Chicagoland area.

Since 1988, CAVA has provided its artist members opportunities to exhibit their artwork in such notable venues as the Old Town Art Center, Chicago Cultural Center, Evanston Art Center, Bridgeport Art Center, and Beverly Arts Center.

CAVA membership comprises painters, drawers, printmakers, photographers, fiber artists, sculptors, and collage and digital artists. Artists at all levels of experience and expertise are represented and welcome to join.

What We Do

CAVA seeks to help promote your work through a series of several annual exhibitions, an annual symposium/workshop, and member activities. We are establishing a multi-university partnership program to help expose your work in spaces unattainable on your own or through local artists' groups and guilds.

Member Opportunities

- Annual Members' Show, Later Impressions, and other juried exhibitions
- Social, educational, and networking programs and events
- Volunteer opportunities
- Email and Facebook alerts and newsletters
- Member links on CAVA's website

Get Involved!

Join our artists, who represent a rich and vibrant voice in our society and contribute to the cultural life of the Chicago area. Become a member, volunteer your time, or make a donation by completing the enrollment form on the back of this brochure.
